- I. Qualifications that weigh heavily in the selection include the contributions made by the Auctioneer to the Colorado Auctioneers Association, Inc. and if possible, the NAA. The honoree needs to have had an active interest in CAA, Inc. for ten years or more. Have they been an officer or a member of the Board of Directors; have they been on various committees; have they attended seminars and conventions; have they been a speaker or a member of a panel discussion at the conventions or seminars.
- II. The second area looked at closely is their auction business. It doesn't make any difference as to the size of their auctions, the area that they encompass, or the type of auctions or variety they may conduct. What is important is that they have been an active Auctioneer for more than ten years, and their professionalism, integrity and high standards have made them an auction leader in their area.
- III. A third area that adds some weight is the individual's contribution to their community. Have they been active in community projects, civic organizations, elective office, or any other community area?
