Disability Funding Committee

License Plate Configuration Terms of Purchase

Acknowledgement

By bidding for or purchasing a registration number, you agree to all of the terms and conditions in this document and agree to abide by all applicable federal and state laws and regulations.

Payment Agreement

By bidding for or purchasing a registration number, you agree to pay the maximum amount of your bid to the Colorado Disability Funding Committee, if you are the winning bidder.

Tax Rules

By bidding for or purchasing a registration number, you agree that the Colorado Disability Funding Committee has not made any representations regarding whether all or part of a winning bid amount is eligible for a tax deduction or tax credit under any state or federal law.

Plate Ownership Date

If you are the winning bidder or purchaser of a registration number, the closing date of the auction or purchase date shall be deemed the first day of right to use the registration number.

Gifts and Transfers to Recipient

If you are the winning bidder for a registration number, you may choose to gift the registration number to another person or entity at the time you make payment in full of the winning bid amount. In such event, the closing date of the auction shall be deemed to be the first day on which the gift recipient owns the right to use the registration number. At no other time shall the registration number be transferable.

Registration Number

A winning bidder or gift recipient is not required to register the registration number to a vehicle during the period of ownership.

Time of Ownership

Ownership of plate configurations registered to vehicles shall be regulated under Department of Revenue, Division of Motor Vehicles.

Any plate configuration not registered to a vehicle within 13 months of purchase from the Colorado Disability Funding Committee may, at the discretion of the committee, be repealed.

Failed Payments

If a winning bidder fails to make payment in full of the winning bid amount within seven (7) calendar days from the closing date of the auction, the winning bid shall be cancelled and the registration number associated with the winning bid shall revert back to the Colorado Disability Funding Committee. At that time, the Committee may offer the registration number to the next highest bidder, or place the registration number back into reserved status for future auction by the Colorado Disability Funding Committee.

Plate Registration

Within 10 days of the winning bid or purchase, the Committee will notify the Vehicle Services Section of the Colorado Department of Revenue (the "Department") of the winning bidder or gift recipient's name, telephone number, mailing address, and the registration number won.

Registration Process

(1) If a winning bidder or gift recipient chooses to register the registration number to a vehicle, then they may do so by submitting the Certificate of Ownership along with any other required registration materials to the Department, the manufactured license plate will be provided by the Department.

(2) If a winning bidder or gift recipient chooses to register the registration number to a vehicle, then the winning bidder or gift recipient must comply with all applicable title and registration requirements, including but not limited to the payment of any taxes, fees and manufacturing costs, before the Department will issue a license plate that bears the registration number.

(3) If a winning bidder or gift recipient chooses to register the registration number to a vehicle and would like to select a group special or alumni license plate type from among those authorized by the Department, then the winning bidder or gift recipient must comply with all applicable qualification requirements, including but not limited to pre-certification requirements, vehicle type requirements, person-specific requirements, payment of required donations, and payment of any fees, before the Department will issue a group special or alumni license plate that bears the registration number.

(4) If a winning bidder or gift recipient chooses to register the registration number to a vehicle and would like to select an alternative license plate material, the alternative material must be pre-approved by the Department and the winning bidder or gift recipient must pay all costs associated with obtaining and manufacturing the registration number on the alternative material before the Department will issue a license plate that bears the registration number.
